

Autumn Term Catalogue 2009

BOOKS
FOR SCHOOLS

Welcome back to free Books for Schools from The Times and The Sunday Times

Autumn is here, and with it comes a fresh and exciting online catalogue of free books for your library. Your school is one of over 12,000 all over the country which are collecting tokens to boost and broaden their libraries with The Times and The Sunday Times Books for Schools campaign. It's all part of our enduring commitment to giving Britain's children better access to books.

Our Books for Schools autumn catalogue is bursting with novels your children will love. There are timeless classics such as The Indian in the Cupboard and Just Henry, winner of the Children's Book category in this year's Costa Book Awards. Look out also for a host of Roald Dahl titles, including Matilda and The Enormous Crocodile.

Books for Schools has taken the country by storm, with teachers, assistants, librarians, pupils, governors, parents, and lollipop ladies all helping to collect tokens for their school. Whether you're offering prizes for the class who collects the most tokens, competitions, games or celebrating meeting your targets in assembly, Books for Schools is a fantastic way to make links in the school community.

Our book selection

Once again, we've worked with Scholastic Book Clubs to compile this list of 200 great titles for you to choose from. Titles are divided into age ranges for guidance purposes only. In addition, we can offer a wide range of Braille titles, details of which can be obtained by calling the Scholastic helpline on 01993 893 444. Calls are charged at local rate.

Keep collecting

Autumn term tokens will appear in The Times and The Sunday Times every day from September 13 to December 6. At the end of this collecting period, you will need to count up the number of tokens collected, select your free books from this catalogue and send your tokens to us, together with your order form, to arrive by December 18, 2009.

To help you to remind parents, pupils and local businesses to keep collecting tokens, you will find draft letters and posters in the 'download' section of our website freebooksforschools.co.uk
